Further respite for Floyd Allen and Claude Swanson Allen is now regarded as probable, in view of the efforts beings made to produce allened after-case covered evidence in the Hillsville court massacre. No statement or comment of any sort has been made by Governor Mann. A reprieve is surmised because of the fact that but three days remain until the time set for the execution of the death sentence on the condemned murderers, a period too short to permit of the gathering of evidence which has been reported to the attorneys for the derense. Again, it is also guessed that nothing so far presented to the Governor bas appealed to him as any reason for commutation of the sentence of Claude Allen. He has not been asked, save in a sporadic way, to do anything for Floyd Allen. The most that is hoped for by those active in behalf of the condemned men is a life sentence for the younger murderer.
